

Person Centred Care

Name D.O.B. / /

Referred by: Date: / /

Assessed by: Date: / /

List others present:

Room Number:

Consultant: G.P.:

Social Worker: CPN:

Present care:

Diagnosis:

Presenting Problem:

UNIQUENESS

Regardless Of Illness,
All People Are Unique
And This Must Be
Acknowledged For People
With Dementia.

YES

NO

Details:

COMPLEXITY

Humans Are Complex Beings
And A Myriad Of Factors
Influence The Way We See And
Respond To The World Around Us.

YES

NO

Details:

ENABLING

We Need To Recognise The
Strengths And Abilities Of People
With Dementia And Ensure Opportunities Exist For Them To Be Utilised.

YES

NO

Details:

PERSONHOOD

The Recognition Of A Sense Of
Self, Who We Are And What Place
We Hold In The World Around Us.
It Places An Emphasis On The Positive Effects Of Daily Interaction

YES

NO

Details:

VALUE OF OTHERS

PCC recognises the personhood
of all people. roles of direct care
staff, the formulation of policies and procedures and staff and managers supporting each other.

YES

NO

Details:

VULNERABILITY
Does social behaviour give rise to problems?
Communication skills	YES NO	Details:
Orientated to time, place, person	YES NO	Details:
Tends to wander	YES NO	Details:
Behaviour likely to upset others	YES NO	Details:
Social isolation	YES NO	Details:
Smoker	YES NO	Details:
Fire risk	YES NO	Details:
Alcohol	YES NO	Details:
MENTAL STATE		Details:
Give details of concerns regarding mood, memory, behaviour, etc.
CURRENT MEDICATION		Details:
List all medication, including details of injections.
Consent Client wishes/ does not wish to manage all their affair. Client has designated (Named Person People) to discuss their needs with staff Relationship to client Client Signed: Date: / / Designated Person Signed Designation: Outcome of PCC: Comments: ..... ..... Staff Member Signed: Date: / / Designation:		